HOPE FOR BOXING
GAME AFTER MAY 1.

The Police Board Is Split on the Question of Licensing Boxing Clubs.

POLICE COMMISSIONER SEXTON.

There is hope that boxing is not dead, and that hope is based upon Police Commissioner Sexton's declaration to a friend that he voted "no" on the application of the Seaside Athletic Club's application last week under a misapprehension. He did not know, he declared, that he was voting on the Seaside Athletic Club, which had had a license for months, but thought it was a brand new association.

Commissioner Sexton said yesterday with all the emphasis of which that official is possessed when he is determined:

"I would not have voted as I did had I known that I was dealing with an old club. I supposed it was a new one. If I can have my way about it the resolution passed by the Police Board will be rescinded."

"I can see no reason why licensed clubs should not be allowed to continue until Sept. 1. They will be licensed if I can have my way about it."

Any one who is possessed of a deep understanding of the Police Board knows that Commissioner Sexton is in almost all matters in the board, and the statement recorded above must be given considerable weight.

Another evidence of the possibility that boxing is not yet dead is Commissioner Hest's slight faltering from the determined stand he announced last week. Then he said that he would not vote for a renewal of a boxing license under any condition. Yesterday when pinned down to rock bottom he wavered.

"I'm opposed to boxing," he said, "Last year I stated emphatically that if I voted for one club to have a license I would vote for all. I meant it. I have voted for all until now because the Police Board seemed as a whole to want to issue licenses and as the law provided, however personally opposed I was to the whole thing. I am against boxing in this city to-day, emphatically against it."

"But should a resolution be presented to the Police Board to rescind the resolution which denied a license to the Seaside Athletic Club, would you vote for it?" a friend asked the Commissioner yesterday.

"It isn't safe to say what a person will do these days. No, I will not say what I will do in such an emergency."

"Were you, like Commissioner Sexton, under a misapprehension when you voted on the Seaside Athletic Club's application?" was asked.

"No, I was not deceived. I knew what the club stood for. I knew it was the old club under another name," replied Commissioner Hest.

President York is just as bitterly opposed as ever. He said that he would not vote to rescind the resolution under any condition. Asked if the Police Board would at its next meeting consider the rescinding of the resolution he would not say.

"There never has been a time when this Police Board was so strained as now. There is little doubt that Commissioner Sexton's attitude is one of fight and the no license subject is at the bottom of it. If President York sticks to his avowed purpose and is assisted in it by Commissioner Abel, a split in the Police Board harmony so much bragged about is imminent."

Commissioner Abel was not in a talking mood yesterday.

JEFF TO MEET SHARKEY.

Likely to Come Together in a Six-Round Bout in Chicago.

Jim Jeffries and Tom Sharkey are as good as matched to meet in a six-round bout at Tattersall's fighting arena in Chicago. Lon Housman, the fight promoter of the Windy City, wired both Sharkey and Billy Brady, manager of Jeffries, offering them a guarantee of 75 per cent. of the gross receipts for a limited round go.

Brady, without hesitating a moment, wired his acceptance to Housman.

Sharkey will also, probably, accept the offer, as he knows that the fighters will receive not less than $5,000 between them.

JEFFRIES'S DEFL.

Billy Brady, manager of Jim Jeffries, feels so confident that there is not a heavy weight in the business that can beat his big protégé that he is ready now to arrange matches with all of them; namely, Sharkey, McCoy, Rubin and Fitzsimmons.

Brady was very enthusiastic when he made this statement to an Evening World reporter, and said:

"I cannot see where one of these big fellows has a chance of ever whipping Jeffries. I think Jeffries will make such short work of Jim Corbett that I will furnish the public with one of the greatest triumphs."

"Immediately after that fight is over I will agree to let Jeffries fight Kiki McCoy the following night. Sharkey three weeks after the McCoy fight, McCoy and Rubin three weeks after that fight. In regard to the fight between Jeffries and Corbett, I expect to see him beat Corbett in less than ten rounds. I wouldn't care to take the punching that Corbett will get from Jeffries. Jeff is sure on Corbett for the announcement he has frequently made that he would knock Corbett out before he could be hurt by Corbett's fight Fitzsimmons in Carson City."

BOXING NEWS
McCoy-Ryan Match.

McCoy and Tommy Ryan, who have accepted a purse of $5,000 to fight in Chicago, were to have been matched yesterday, but the negotiations were not arranged. Billy Brady represented Ryan. As McCoy was shown up, but instead sent the money he refused to do any business with him.

DUNKHORST READY

Dunkhorst and Dunkhorst are ready to fight for their bout in Chicago. Dunkhorst, manager of the Seaside Athletic Club, Myrtle notable in Dunkhorst's condition since he joined Jeffries. He has taken off many pounds of fat, and it looks as if he will be close to entering the ring not above 220 pounds. This, for such a big man as he is, is light, and he may easily be the first to come out of the lanky antelope puts him away. Forfeits of a substantial character have been posted for this fight, as Fitz insisted on it, and the first to come out to the front with his own. Bob, at his headquarters, is working hard on but others, including the match with Gus Rubin, which necessitates his being in the best of condition.

Commissioner Abel was not in a talking mood yesterday.

O'BRIEN THE WINNER.

New Yorker Put Moore to Sleep in the Sixteenth Round.

TROY, N. Y., April 25.—Jack O'Brien, of New York, knocked out Billy Moore, of Syracuse, in the sixteenth round of what was to have been a twenty-round bout at the light-weight limit at the Manhattan A. C. last night.

GARDNER AND BERNSTEIN.

Fight Twenty-five Rounds Friday Night at Broadway A. C.

Oscar Gardner, the "Graham Kid," and Joe Bernstein will meet in a twenty-five-round fight at the Broadway Athletic Club on Friday night. Both men are fighters of recognized ability and the battle will be fast and interesting. Terry McGovern, the champion, said yesterday that he was prepared to make a match with the winner and will fight him before he fights anybody else, and as both Bernstein and Gardner are anxious to try conclusions with him again, each will strive for the opportunity.

BEANEATERS SLOW.

The Beaneaters did not show their old-time speed on the baselines yesterday. Even Hamilton, whose fleetness is one of the traditions of the club, didn't show the way in which he usually hanks after putting himself against a throw from center field. The Giants showed the way in this respect, as they beat the Beaneaters in a combination of a double play and a combination of a double play and a combination of a double play.

Ah, my friend, will you condescend to indulge in another little competitive dalliance with the sphere.

NEW YORK GAME.

knocked a quick slap to Lowe also, and met the same fate. Three balls pitched, all swatted. No runs.

Second inning.

Hickman guaged Long's fly poorly and Herman scooped to second on a cheap hit. Doyle collected Sullivan's pop fly. Long was caught asleep at second. Connolly called him safe. The single untripped game was showing itself a farce. Doherty took four balls for a walk. Mercer grabbed Hamilton's tap to third, forcing Doherty and doubling the runner at first. Winkle kept his head nicely and earned applause. No runs.

Third inning.

Tenney dumped a bunt on the line and beat it out. Gleason handed Collins a hit to Doyle. Tenney, marching to second. Davis attached Shalh's forty fly. Stupid drop at Tenney's third. Van got second on a bunt. Doherty ran to cover first, overrunning the ball on his way to the bag. Eddie sent over a tap to first on time. Connolly called it safe. Freeman got to third on the play. Lowe was allowed to second. Doherty tagged Long's slide and tossed it to Doyle's One run.

Fourth inning.

Hickman galloped to Sullivan's fly. Doherty sent a bunt to Grady. Doherty's pop to Long forced Grady at second. Van's single to right pushed Eddie to third. Van got second on a bunt. Doherty ran to cover first, overrunning the ball on his way to the bag. Eddie sent over a tap to first on time. Connolly called it safe. Freeman got to third on the play. Lowe was allowed to second. Doherty tagged Long's slide and tossed it to Doyle's One run.

Fifth inning.

Mercer's handling of Tenney's teasing bunt led to a bench much cheered. Collins beat a hot jumper, according to Doherty's handling of a fly to second. Mercer couldn't get Freeman's infield single. Collins looping to second. Collins tried for home on Tenney's pop. Doherty sent a bunt to Grady. Doherty's pop to Long forced Grady at second. Van's single to right pushed Eddie to third. Van got second on a bunt. Doherty ran to cover first, overrunning the ball on his way to the bag. Eddie sent over a tap to first on time. Connolly called it safe. Freeman got to third on the play. Lowe was allowed to second. Doherty tagged Long's slide and tossed it to Doyle's One run.

BROOKLYN GAME.

nine's fumble. McFarland was retired on Dunn's assist to Jennings. One run.

Fourth inning.

Single didn't have to move to get Dunn's ascension. Sheppard beat out a neatly placed bunt. Lohle threw out Doherty's hot single to second. Myers caught Sheppard by a hair trying to make an extra base. No runs.

Fifth inning.

Stacie was right where Jennings's long drive landed. Thomas raced under and squeezed Kelley's ascension. Myers dispatched Tenney in handling Jones's bunt. No runs.

CORNELL AND STRACUSE.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 25.—Cornell and Syracuse University met on Percy Field last afternoon in their first game of the season. Both teams showed better form than has been seen here this year. Lyon pitched for the latter time since his return from the South, and gave satisfaction. Costello, a brother of Cornell's third baseman, was Syracuse's pitcher.

RUSIE TO COME BACK ON MAY 30.

Great Pitcher Says He Is Forced to Remain in Indianapolis Until His Divorce Proceedings Are Settled. Then He Will Join the New Yorks.

(Special to The Evening World.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 24.—Rusie says that he will go back to New York to play ball and that he has no quarrel with the ball club now and that everything is satisfactory. Rusie will remain in Indianapolis until May 30, when his divorce trial comes off. His property here amounts to several thousand dollars and he fears that if he does not remain here to protect it his wife may get a large part of it as alimony.

COLUMBIA VS. HOLY CROSS.

A Big Crowd Saw Teams in Annual Game at Worcester.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WORCESTER, April 25.—The Holy Cross and Columbia baseball teams played their annual game on the college grounds this afternoon before a big crowd, notwithstanding the counter attraction at Worcester Oval, where the Worcester and Albany clubs had a professional game. Carney pitched the game for Holy Cross, Griffin, the Holy Cross premier pitcher, being reserved for the Fordham College game next Saturday. Marcus did the twirling for the visitors. John H. Gaffney, of National League fame, umpired the game.

FORDHAM VS. LAFAYETTE.

Old-Time Rivals in Good Shape for First Game of Season.

(Special to The Evening World.)

FORDHAM, April 25.—The Fordham College baseball nine met its old rivals, the Lafayette College team, on the home grounds this afternoon. The Fordham-Lafayette series has always been a hotly contested struggle and to-day was looked upon as no exception.

Both teams showed up in fine form and the contest was one of the prettiest seen at Fordham.

Batting Order.

Fordham: 1. Lafayette, 2. Bray, 3. Chalmers, 4. Murphy, 5. Statter, 6. Mitchell, 7. Conners, 8. Wagh, 9. McKenna, 10. Horan, 11. Currier, 12. and Sella, p.

WINNERS AT AQUEDUCT;
ENTRIES FOR TO-MORROW.

Track Officials Intend to Investigate Yesterday's Fatal Accident.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, AQUEDUCT, April 25.—The stewards will to-day make an investigation into the accident which occurred in the fifth race yesterday, and which caused the death of Jockey Frank O'Leary. The officials believe, as does every one else, that the accident was the result of rough riding on the part of some of the jockeys.

If the blame can be fixed the culprit should be ruled out for life. The other jockeys injured in the race—McJoyn and Hewitt—are doing well. The horse G. E. Wightman will probably be shot this afternoon.

The weather to-day continued in its usual charming mood, and the crowd enjoyed a fine outing. The programme promised splendid racing, and the track was in condition for fast work. There were few scratches, and the fields were large.

When the horses filed to the post in the first race each rider wore upon his left arm a band of crepe in mourning for their dead fellow-jockey, Frank O'Leary. The boys raised $500 in the jockey room before the races. This money will be expended for flowers. The first race was a seven-furlong dash. Oliver Mc. strange to say, was served as a hot favorite. He was backed down from 11 to 5 to 3. Maher had the mount. Sweet Caporal was the second choice. Zanon was at 4 to 1 well backed. Mitchell rushed to the front at once with Zanon and was never headed, winning in a hard drive by a head from Sweet Caporal. Sweet Caporal and Dutch Comedian came with a rush at the end but failed to make the grade. The horse G. E. Wightman was never prominent and finished far back in the bunch.

Yorkshire Boy After Drive.

Yorkshire Boy was the selected one in the second race and he went to the post at odds on. Sweet Caporal was the second choice, backed from 6 to 1 to 4 to 1. Everything else receded in the betting. Yorkshire Boy was away in front and he opened up a gap of several lengths. In the run to the stretch Light Ball and Lamblin were nearest to him. At that time, when well straightened out, Vouch and Strategist came through and ranched the field. Yorkshire Boy was a red-hot drive through the last sixteenth, but the favorite lasted long enough to win by a head from Vouch, who beat Strategist a head for the place.

Choices in Front.

Laureate and Bunel were the choices in the third race and they were played to the exclusion of the others. The result almost justified the talent's figures. Laureate was the favorite, backed from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1. Bunel was the second choice, backed from 4 to 1 to 3 to 1. Bunel won by a head from Laureate, who beat Strategist a head for the place.

Fourth Race—About seven furlongs. Won by King Barleycorn; Kinkikink was second and Charentus third.

RESULTS AT MEMPHIS.

RACE TRACK, MEMPHIS, April 25.—The races scheduled here to-day resulted as follows:

First Race—Seven furlongs.—Won by Lord Neville, 4 to 1 and 1 to 1; Dandy H., 2 to 1; place, second and Eva Wilson third. Time—1:23 3/4.

Second Race—Four and a half furlongs. Won by Lord, 1 to 1 and 1 to 1; even; Her Heed, for place 2 to 1; second; Gibson third. Time—1:04 3/4.

Third Race—One mile.—Won by Hood's Brigade, 3 to 1 and even; Her Heed, for place 2 to 1; second; Bequeath, third. Time—1:41 3/4.

TIGERS PLAY LEHIGH.

Princeton Nine Was Antagonist to Get Even for Defeat by Bethlehemites Last Season.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PRINCETON, N. J., April 25.—The Tigers and Lehigh baseball teams crossed bats to-day on University Field. The orange and black nine went into the game for blood to even up with the Bethlehem boys for the stinging defeat of last Spring.

BETTER THAN THE KNIFE.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly, Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years, suffering with piles. They try this and that and the other thing, from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea, and the piles come back.

DROMIO TRICK ON COURT.

Doctor's Certificate for Saloon-keeper Used to Excuse Bartender.

Since July 17 Frank E. Finley, bartender for Frank E. Finley, 126 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, has been indicted and court into a belief that he was sick. Bartender Finley was arrested on that date for violation of the excise law. Whenever the case was called in the Burger Street Court his counsel always presented certificates to excuse Finley's absence.
